PURPLE UP!

In April, we honor the Month of the Military Child and as part of this observance, Camp Charlie's MWR created a month-long celebration that was action packed with "Kid Activities" designed to provide Soldiers with memories that they can share with their families back home.

These activities included a USO movie night, making s'mores, learning how to make a purple cow, and an old-fashioned pie eating contest. The month's events will wind down with a hometown block party, with a DJ, and food trucks that Soldiers from (4) states can relax and mingle as some of their rotation orders come to a close.

As we take time this month to honor the courage and resiliency of the children of our Soldiers back home, we hope we have created some memories for them while they were apart, that one day they will be able sit down together and share.
