As millions of NFL fans tuned in to watch the Super Bowl, troops at Camp Charlie in Eagle Pass headed to the DFAC to attend the USO Super-Super Bowl Party.

For troops stationed throughout the U.S. and deployed overseas the base USO is a great way to unwind and enjoy these special events. Camp Charlie is lucky to have a mobile USO representative that brings these special events to them. While each USO location celebrated game day a little differently, here's how our USO Super-Super Bowl Party was celebrated this year.

As the game kicked off, the atmosphere at the USO Super-Super Bowl Party was electrifying. DJ Ton-E-Yo's music had everyone pumped up, while Storm Services provided an array of delicious snacks, pizzas, wings, and desserts to keep the energy high throughout the evening. The 24ft blow-up screen brought the game to life, creating an immersive experience for all the soldiers in attendance. Amidst the excitement, soldiers engaged in games, won prizes, and passionately cheered for their favorite teams. These moments of camaraderie and celebration are the ones that stay etched in their memories. The USO's efforts in organizing such memorable events are truly appreciated and cherished by all. It's these moments of togetherness and fun that bring a sense of joy and respite to those serving in the military. Thank you, USO, for creating these special memories for us to treasure!

OPERATION LONE STAR
BECOME A UPAR PHOTOGRAPHER

WHAT WE DO

- » Provide images and articles in support of Operation Lone Star
- » Document and tell the Task Force story and events
- » Recommend items of interest for coverage (SITREP)
- » Publicize unit participation in community projects or activities
- » Serve as the Public Affairs point of contact for the OLS PAO
- » Keep the Commander advised of activities

WHO WE ARE

Soldiers and Airmen Unit Public Affairs Representatives (UPARs) are non-Public Affairs (PA) Soldiers identified to increase PA capability across a Task Force. PA elements achieve the Commander's requirement to educate and inform audiences about operations. TF UPAR products are subject to normal PA editing and release procedures.

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

Proverbs 2:11

Discretion will protect you, and understanding will guard you.

Discretion, or the ability to make wise decisions, saves a person from many devastating pitfalls in life! These wise decisions can only be made by asking God for wisdom each day. When our focus is on Christ and doing His business, the indwelling Holy Spirit will give us all the wisdom we need for the decisions that we need to make.

Ephesians 5:15-17

Be very careful, then, how you live – not as unwise but wise, making the most of every opportunity, because the days are evil. Therefore, do not be foolish, but understand what the Lord's will is.
