TXARNG and TXSG Soldiers maintain and reinforce anti-climb barriers and concertina wire along the southern Texas-Mexico border in an ongoing effort to deter illegal border crossings.

Riverine operations extend Texas National Guard presence and reach in support of Operation Lone Star's mission to protect Texas and the United States through deterrence, prevention and interdiction.

FOB Eagle Joins the Fight Against Childhood Cancer

The Command Teams and Soldiers of Task Force Eagle have actively participated in the battle against childhood cancer for over two years by supporting the City of Eagle Pass in its year-round plastic bottle cap drive. This initiative has resulted in the collection of numerous large bags of bottle caps, which, when recycled, provide funding for families facing cancer. We are thrilled to announce that the command and soldiers of FOB Eagle are now proud supporters of this program. Buckets have been placed throughout the DFAC to facilitate the recycling of plastic caps by soldiers.

As the OLS Mission continues, the soldiers remain committed to fighting childhood cancer and supporting the families affected by it. Their journey is a testament to the strength of collective action and the enduring spirit of helping others, no matter the challenges faced. With each bottle cap collected, they move one step closer to a world where no child must battle cancer alone.

CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

The Weekly Reset, pt.2 of 2 by: Chaplin McKay

Last week, I said that sabbath keeping helps us have a sustainable rhythm of life. I break away from the “have to’s” to enter into the “get to’s.” The “have to’s” for me are working with people in crisis, leading a staff, directing an organization, preparing the next product, etc. The “get to’s” are those things that bring me joy and delight.

It is an activity like slow conversations with family and friends. Being outdoors. Attending worship. Reading without a deadline. Sleeping until I naturally get up and taking a nap. I may even do a quick project around the house, but it must be one that I enjoy.

Things happen and I may not take a whole day, but I can do a part of a day. Regardless of what it looks like, I always feel refreshed after sabbath.
