The start of another school year is just around the corner! Are your children in need of school supplies?

Join the Back-To School Brigade next Sat, Aug 3 from 9am – 12pm at Camp Mabry where your children can make sure to gear up for another successful year!

It has been a typical week at Camp Charlie in Eagle Pass, with FOB Eagle still under construction and soldiers moving to the new base, Camp Charlie has remained fully operational. Service members persist in their daily routines, including mission task and training exercises.

Activities range from participating in the customary blood donation drive and facilitating mission-specific training courses, to receiving a complimentary haircut through partnerships with local community organizations. Though there may be fewer service members on camp, the atmosphere has not lost its feeling of dedication and professionalism. Under the leadership of the TF-Eagle Command, Soldiers from various regions across the nation have converged at Camp Charlie for accommodation and training.

Although this summer may be characterized by a subdued ambiance, the essence of tradition and the creation of lasting memories have endured. Eagle Pass boasts a storied military heritage, we can be proud that we have contributed yet another chapter to this legacy during this past week at Camp Charlie.

NEWS UPDATE

"Be on your guard; stand firm in the faith; be courageous; be strong." - 1 Corinthians 16:13

In December 1944, during the Battle of the Bulge, the German army launched a surprise offensive through the Ardennes Forest. The Belgian town of Bastogne, held by the 101st Airborne Division and elements of the 10th Armored Division, became a critical target due to its strategic road junctions. Surrounded and outnumbered, the American defenders, led by Brigadier General Anthony McAuliffe, famously responded "Nuts!" to the German demand for surrender. Despite harsh winter conditions and dwindling supplies, they held their ground until December 26, when General Patton's Third Army arrived, breaking the siege and playing a vital role in the Allied victory.

In the midst of life's battles, the concept of "holding the line" holds profound significance. It evokes the image of soldiers steadfastly maintaining their positions against overwhelming odds. For Christians, it means standing firm in our faith, knowing that through God, all things are possible.
