OPERATION OVERLORD

On June 6, 1944, in Operation Overlord, the Allied forces landed troops on Normandy beaches for the largest amphibious assault in history, beginning the march eastward to defeat Germany.

The Normandy beaches were chosen by planners because they lay within range of air cover and were less heavily defended than the obvious objective of the Pas de Calais, the shortest distance between Great Britain and the Continent.

Airborne drops at both ends of the beachheads were to protect the flanks, as well as open roadways to the interior. Six divisions were to land on the first day; three U.S., two British and one Canadian. Two more British and one U.S. division were to follow up after the assault division had cleared the way through the beach defenses.

Disorganization, confusion, incomplete or faulty implementation of plans characterized the initial phases of the landings. This was especially true of the airborne landings which were badly scattered, as well as the first wave units landing on the assault beaches. To their great credit, most of the troops were able to adapt to the disorganization. In the end, the Allies achieved their objective. CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

In these trying times, it's vital to hold fast to the powerful truths found in God's Word. His justice and power are unmatched. Let this truth ignite your spirit and fuel your perseverance:

"The Lord will march out like a champion, like a warrior He will stir up His zeal; with a shout He will raise the battle cry and will triumph over His enemies." - Isaiah 42:13

Do not let fear or discouragement grip your heart, for the Lord Almighty fights for you. As it is written:

"Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or terrified because of them, for the Lord your God goes with you; He will never leave you nor forsake you." - Deuteronomy 31:6

Remember the fate of the wicked and the promise to the faithful.

The Lord says:

"The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God." - Psalm 9:17

But for those who remain steadfast, His promise is clear:

"Blessed is the one who perseveres under trial because, having stood the test, that person will receive the crown of life that the Lord has promised to those who love Him." - James 1:12

Blessings and unwavering strength to you.
