Texas National Guard soldiers deploy drones to help law enforcement arrest those illegally entering our country.

City of Eagle Pass Dinner at FOB Eagle

There is a delicate balance between the military and cities as they strive to work together to help foster stronger communities. When the right balance between them is achieved, it can yield great opportunities for success.

Prioritizing the need for open communication and collaboration between the military and the city is the first step in establishing a partnership, and it begins with designating individuals to serve as key points of contact.

So, on Monday evening the City of Eagle Pass Mayor Rolando Salinas Jr., City Manager Homero Balderas, Assistant City Manager Ivan Morua along with representative and staff attended a welcome dinner with TF-Eagle Commanders at FOB Eagle.

The partnership between TF-Eagle and the City of Eagle pass has developed into a great friendship as well as a working relationship for over two years and what better way to introduce our friends to the new FOB by providing an amazing dinner provided by THS Chef Ruben and his staff.

These dinners have become a tradition for TF-Eagle and our guest, and they continue to highlight the example of successful collaborative partnerships and friendship that can be achieved between the military and the city they serve in.
