Heat Exhaustion vs. Heatstroke

Heat Exhaustion (HE) occurs when your body struggles to keep cool in a hot environment.

Signs can include:

- Nausea
- Mild confusion
- Vomiting
- Feeling lightheaded
- Dizziness
- Trouble walking straight

If it's suspected you have HE, you must be taken to a local medical facility for care during training. During operations, combat medics or a battalion aid station can provide the right care.

Exertional Heatstroke (EHS) is when your body temperature gets too high (usually over 104°F). Extreme body temps are serious. They can cause organ damage and even be life-threatening. The first sign of EHS is usually a change in your mental state.

Signs include:

- Seizures
- Confusion, trouble performing simple tasks
- Fatigue and weakness
- High core body temperature (often > 104°F)
- Combativeness
- Loss of consciousness, fainting

Identifying and Preventing Heatstroke

Heatstroke often occurs when your body overheats during heavy work, training, or exercise in the heat.

KEY SIGNS & SYMPTOMS

- Confusion, trouble performing simple tasks
- Combativeness, irritability
- Slurred speech
- Nausea, vomiting
- Fatigue, weakness
- High body temperature (>104°F or higher)
- Lack of coordination, trouble walking (ataxia)
- Dizziness, seizures
- Loss of consciousness, fainting (syncope)

If you or a buddy experience any of these symptoms during moderate to hard exercise in the heat, assume it's heat stroke.

NEWS UPDATE

This past week I was reminded of the story of the lady by the well in John Chapter 4. In this story Jesus has a set time and place to meet this woman who is coming to fill her water jug for the day. They have a good conversation and at the end he shares, he is the promised messiah. Over the years I have read this passage and found it very meaning full. However, this week I was stuck with the fact that in the story we find a woman at the well. However, the truth is that Christ has a place and time for all of us, he is waiting and ready to give us the living water only he can give.

My hope and prayer this week. Whatever you are facing in life and on this mission, you are not alone at the well, in the spiritual context as well while on this mission. You have leaders, friends, and battle buddies that care for you and are willing to support you, sometimes we just must be brave and strike up a conversation just like the women at the well.

The practice of strewing flowers on graves has been documented from Classical Roman times to western Europe in the nineteenth century.
