NEWS UPDATE

A Peaceful Thought Life

One of the most powerful marks of a believer is transcendent peace. This world offers us no reason to be peaceful. It offers us no reason to be without stress, burdens, cares, and total frustration. But we serve a God who offers us peace in the midst of any circumstance. We serve a God in whom all true peace finds its source. May you discover the heart of your heavenly Father to bring you peace this week.

For to set the mind on the flesh is death, but to set the mind on the Spirit is life and peace.” Romans 8:6

Your thought-life can either be a place of peace and life or a source of immense internal struggle and despair. It's our thoughts that the enemy tries to affect with half-truths and outright lies. It's our thoughts that are the gateway to our emotions and actions. And it's our thoughts our loving heavenly Father longs to influence, redeem, and renew that we might experience everlasting peace.

Isaiah 26:3 says, “You keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on you, because he trusts in you.” Do you long for perfect peace today? Do you long to keep your mind stayed on the inexpressible excellencies of Jesus? It all starts with trust. When we allow our minds to stray into worry, doubt, fear, reservation, and lies, it is because we don't trust that God is who he says he is or that he will do what he says he'll do.
