CHAPLAIN'S CORNER

Tuesday within the Octave of Easter

By Chaplain Buchanan

John 20:11–18

Troops, in today's Gospel, we find Mary Magdalene weeping by the tomb of the risen Lord. She then sees Jesus and doesn't recognize him immediately.

In a wonderful detail, she thinks he's the gardener. In the book of Genesis, God, the gardener of Eden, walked with his creatures in easy friendship. Sin, the sundering of the loop of grace, put an end to those intimate associations.

Throughout the history of salvation, God had been trying to reestablish friendship. Through the death of Jesus, through that tomb placed right in the garden, he accomplished his goal. So now, in Christ, he appears again as a gardener. "Jesus said to her, 'Mary!' She turned and said to him in Hebrew, 'Rabbouni.'"

Then Jesus says: "Stop holding on to me, for I have not yet ascended to the Father. But go to my brothers . . ." The not clinging has to do with the call to proclaim. The idea is not to hang on to Jesus but to announce what he has accomplished. The content of the proclamation is, once again, that we have become the intimates of God:

"My Father and your Father . . . my God and your God."

Army Directive 2025-06 - Army Fitness Test

This directive establishes the Army Fitness Test (AFT) as the physical fitness Test of record, updates Army policies related to the AFT, and prescribes effective dates for implementation. The AFT includes one fitness standard for all combat areas of concentration (AOC's) and military occupational specialties and increase fitness standards for all Soldiers. The AFT will improve readiness, enhances lethality, and reinforce the warrior ethos.

📌 The AFT replaces the Army Combat Fitness Test on 1 June 2025. The Army will no longer conduct the ACFT after 31 May 2025. Soldier ACFT for record tests taken before 31 May 2025 will remain valid IAW army policies.

📌 The AFT will consist of five (5) events. Max Dead-lift (MDL), Hand release Pushup (HRP), Sprint, Drag, Carry (SDC), Plank (PLK), and the 2-mile run (2MR).

📌 The AFT combat standard is sex neutral and age-normed. Soldiers serving in combat specialties must achieve a minimum of 60 points per event and an overall minimum of 350. The AFT combat standard applies to Soldiers serving in the following MOS's. 11A, 11B, 11C, 11Z, 12A, 12B, 13A, 13F, 18A, 180A, 18B, 18C, 18D, 18E, 18F, 18Z, 19A, 19C, 19D, 19K, and 19Z.

📌 Beginning 1 June 2025, all Soldiers requiring a record fitness test must pass the AFT general standard.

📌 Soldiers serving in the Regular Active duty must pass
(a) two record AFT's per calendar year, with no less than four (4) months between passing record tests.
(b) Pass a record AFT within 90 days of a Record AFT or ACFT failure.

📌 Soldiers serving in the Reserve Component must
(a) Pass the AFT once per calendar year for record, with no less than eight (8) months between passing record test.
(b) Pass a record within 180 days of a record AFT or ACFT failure.

LEARN. ACT. CHANGE.

What you say matters.

Every day, your words send a message about what you value and believe. When you stand up for survivors, you send a powerful message that you believe and support them.

Lots of different things shape our beliefs about sexual abuse, assault, and harassment.

- TV shows, movies, news reporting, and other forms of media might inform your views. Recognizing that media portrayals may be inaccurate and rarely tell the whole story is important.
- Think about where you've seen sexual violence shown or talked about. How could that have impacted your views or led to assumptions?

Your words affect others.

- Whether you know it or not, each of us knows people who are survivors of sexual violence. They might not have told anyone out of fear of being blamed or judged or not told you because they were not comfortable or didn't think you would take it seriously.
- If someone in your life is considering sharing something personal with you, they are listening to your opinions or attitudes for clues on how you will respond.

- A comment or joke based on assumptions or stereotypes might not seem like a big deal, but it could make someone feel unsafe about sharing personal or difficult things with you. This is also true for the things you like or share on social media – they can be signs to others about the attitudes and beliefs you have about sexual abuse, harassment, or assault.

For example, someone might think: “I could never tell her what happened to me. She makes comments online saying if victims of sexual assault don’t go to the police, then it wasn’t that serious.”

What can you do?

- Don’t wait for a critical moment to say the right things. The things you do and say every day are telling people your values.
- When you hear comments that blame victims or make light of sexual abuse, assault, and harassment, speak up so others know you disagree. Even if you don’t have a perfect response, challenging misconceptions and stereotypes sends the message that you believe survivors and you are a safe person to talk to.

For example: “That commercial made me uncomfortable. I think everyone should be treated with respect.” or “I don’t think that’s true — I believe people when they say that someone has hurt them.”

Your voice is powerful and necessary in changing attitudes and educating about sexual abuse, assault, and harassment. People listen to the things you do and speak. Your words and actions can tell people that you are safe to talk to and that you support and believe survivors.

A “Hoppy Easter” at FOB Eagle

This Easter Sunday was extra special at FOB Eagle as service members were treated to a visit from the USO Easter Bunny and the delight of Girl Scout Cookies.

Thanks to the United Service Organizations (USO)—a steadfast supporter of our military since 1941—and the Girl Scouts, who have shared support with troops since “Operation Cookie” during the Persian Gulf War in 1990, the afternoon was filled with smiles!

The proud traditions of these two organizations, combined with the dedication of the soldiers currently serving or having served on the Operation Lone Star (OLS) mission, made for a memorable and meaningful Easter celebration.

Special thanks to Mr. E. Bunny for hopping in and making the day unforgettable!

Earth Day was a success!
