FOR IMMEDIATE PUBLIC RELEASE:

Texas State Guard to Deliver Toys to Dallas Area Hospitals

AUSTIN, Texas (Dec. 11, 2014) – Dozens of uniformed members of the Texas State Guard (TXSG) will sort, organize and prepare thousands of toys for delivery to pediatric patients at Dallas and Fort Worth area children's hospitals, on Saturday, Dec. 13, 2014, beginning at 8 a.m.

Following the sorting, organizing and loading of toys, volunteers with the TXSG will personally deliver collected toys to children at Medical City Children's Hospital in Dallas. Just one of several hospitals being visited by members of the Guard on Saturday, other toy distributions are being arranged across the state in Austin, Houston, San Antonio and Lubbock.

In its fifth year, the toy distribution is part of the "Young Heroes of the Guard" toy roundup program designed to collect and deliver new toys to pediatric patients at every dedicated children's hospital in Texas during the holiday season. Additionally, the goal is to collect enough toys to leave behind an inventory of stuffed animals, games, dolls and more for the hospitals to give to patients throughout the following year.

"This year thanks to the generous donations of communities throughout Texas, we have been able to raise more than 13,000 toys," said Col. Robert Hastings, commander, 19th Regiment, Texas State Guard. "This is the largest amount of donations in the program's five year history and doubles last year's figures."

Since 2009, Texas State Guard volunteers have collected and distributed more than 21,000 toys to children across Texas who are spending the holiday season away from home.
