FOR IMMEDIATE PUBLIC RELEASE:

36th Infantry Division Concludes Annual Training

CAMP MABRY, Texas (July 30, 2014) –The 36th Infantry Division, Texas Army National Guard, is concluding its annual training with units from all over Texas leaving Fort Hood and other areas beginning July 31, 2014.

This training will put a lot of Soldiers on Texas roads and highways as they convoy to and from training, explained Col. Jim Nugent, 36th Infantry Division chief of staff.

"We ask our fellow Texans to take care in passing convoys and even single military vehicles on our roads. Please be aware that our equipment has the same blind spots and longer stopping distances common to all large trucks and give them a little extra space."

Over the last ten years, the Texas military Forces has trained and mobilized more than 30,000 Soldiers across the state of Texas in support of combat operations and natural disaster relief.

For more information regarding the 36th Infantry Division's annual training, contact the Texas Military Forces Public Affairs Office at 512-782-5620.
