FOR IMMEDIATE PUBLIC RELEASE:

Texas National Guard partners with Army Reserve and Chilean armed forces for annual Best Warrior Competition

AUSTIN, Texas (Feb. 3, 2016) – On Saturday, Feb. 6, 2016 from 10:00 a.m to 11:30 a.m, the Texas Military Department will host a media day at Camp Swift in Bastrop, Texas, near Austin, as 64 Texas National Guard soldiers and airmen, Army Reservists and Chilean armed forces members compete in the final round of the statewide Best Warrior Competition.

Immediately following an eight-mile foot march, the competitors will gather as the Bastrop County Commissioner read an official resolution celebrating the contributions of the local military's service members, as well as renewing Bastrop's support of the TMD Best Warrior Competition. After the proclamation by Bastrop officials, media representatives are invited to cover the "mystery event," a fast-paced, high-intensity event that will test all competitors on numerous warrior tasks.

The Best Warrior Competition is a rigorous three-day competition that tests the tactical and technical expertise of service members through scored events, such as an oral knowledge exam board, a tactical road march, obstacle course and physical fitness test, as well as "a mystery event" announced the day of the competition.

For the first time, Army Reservists and Chilean service members will be competing in this event, an effort to build camaraderie and inter-agency relationships between Texas Guardsmen and those they serve alongside of both at home and abroad.
