FOR IMMEDIATE PUBLIC RELEASE:

Civil War Living History Event Kicks off Saturday, Ends Sunday

AUSTIN, Texas (Mar. 8, 2017) – Guns of 1863 will kick off on Saturday, March 11, 2017 and conclude Sunday, March 12, 2017 at Camp Mabry, in Austin, to educate the public about the realities faced in camp and on the battlefield by soldiers on both sides during the War Between the States in dramatic fashion. Show times are at 1 p.m. both days.

The event is hosted by the Texas Military Forces Museum at Camp Mabry and will feature members of the Texas Military Forces Living History Detachment and several other reenactment units from across the state exhibiting the uniforms, equipment and weapons worn or used by Union and Confederate soldiers during the Civil War. Visitors will be able to see infantry and cavalry drills, tents, battle flags, bugles, drums, civilian clothing of the period and even a field hospital, as well as learn how soldiers loaded and fired muskets and cannons. Cavalry, infantry and artillery weapons and equipment will also be on display.

The free two-day event will also provide visitors the opportunity to witness firing demonstrations of the most famous weapons of the Civil War. Among the weapons that will be demonstrated are the Model 1853 Enfield Rifle, the Sharp's Carbine, the Henry Repeating Rifle, the Ketchum Hand Grenade and several types of field artillery. In addition, at the end of the hour and 15 minute program, the re-enactors will recreate a skirmish between Union forces holding an earthwork and attacking Confederate troops.

Guests will also be able to tour the Texas Military Forces Museum and stroll through its extensive Civil War exhibit. Guests are encouraged to photograph and film the event.

Plenty of bleacher seating is available, but guests should come prepared for the sun. Souvenirs and concessions will be available. The event will take place rain or shine.
