FOR IMMEDIATE PUBLIC RELEASE:

Camp Mabry to hold Youth Fishing Derby Saturday

AUSTIN, Texas (Jan. 2, 2018)- The Texas Army National Guard’s Environmental Program and Camp Mabry are hosting the 4th Annual Youth Fishing Derby, Jan. 13th from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. at the lower pond at Camp Mabry, in Austin, Texas. This event is free for youth ages 14 and younger.

The event is open to military and civilian families and will provide visitors a fun day of fishing for Rainbow Trout! Don’t have a fishing pole? No problem, both tackle and poles will be available, but participants should feel free to bring their own.

This is the most recent of several Texas Army National Guard deployments in support of the MFO mission in the Sinai Peninsula.

The Texas Army National Guard environmental program is partnering with Texas Parks and Wildlife and U.S. Fish and Wildlife, for this event. In addition to fishing, there will be many other fun and educational activities for your children to engage in.

To register for the event, please visit the website at <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/camp-mabry-4th-annual-fishing-derby-tickets-39953820954> Registration is limited.
