

Brigadier General Andrew Camacho

TEXAS MILITARY DEPARTMENT
DEPUTY ADJUTANT GENERAL - AIR

Brigadier General Andrew J. Camacho serves as the Deputy Adjutant General - Air for the State of Texas. As the Deputy Adjutant General – Air, he assists the Adjutant General in exercising and executing command responsibilities and is the principal adviser on all Air National Guard matters. The Deputy Adjutant General – Air also works with the Chief of the Joint Staff to prepare the state for federal or state emergencies, to include manmade or natural disasters, and federal military mobilizations.

General Camacho received his commission through the Air National Guard-Academy of Military Science, after graduating from the University of Wisconsin in 1998. He completed Specialized Undergraduate Pilot Training at Laughlin Air Force Base, Del Rio, Texas, in 2000, and was assigned to the 128th Air Refueling Wing at General Mitchell Field, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, as a KC-135R pilot. In 2005, he was selected by Headquarters, Texas Air National Guard to serve as initial cadre to the 147th Reconnaissance Wing's unit conversion to MQ-1B Predator operations. As initial cadre, General Camacho was stationed at Nellis Air Force Base, Nevada, between 2005-2008, where he served as an instructor pilot for both the 11th and 15th Reconnaissance Squadrons returning to Ellington Field in the spring of 2008 to facilitate unit conversion. General Camacho served in various positions to include Chief of Scheduling, Chief of Weapons and Tactics, Flight Commander for the 111th Reconnaissance Squadron; Chief of Standards and Evaluation for the 147th Operations Group; Inspector General for the 147th Attack Wing; RC-26 Program Manager for the 147th Operations Group; and Vice Commander for the 147th Attack Wing. In addition, General Camacho is a Command Pilot and has deployed in support of Operations ALLIED FORCE, NOBLE EAGLE, ENDURING FREEDOM, IRAQI FREEDOM, FREEDOM SENTINEL, RESOLUTE SUPPORT, INHERENT RESOLVE and GUARDIAN SUPPORT. Prior to his current position, General Camacho served as the Wing Commander for the 147th Attack Wing, Texas Air National Guard, Ellington Field Joint Reserve Base, Houston, Texas.
