

SEA Trang (Rose) S. Maxie

TEXAS MILITARY DEPARTMENT
TEXAS AIR NATIONAL GUARD SENIOR ENLISTED ADVISOR

CMSgt Trang S. Maxie is the Senior Enlisted Advisor of the Texas Air National Guard, Camp Mabry, Austin Texas. She serves as the principal enlisted advisor to the Deputy Adjutant General – Air for more than 3,000 personnel. Her responsibilities include advising the Deputy Adjutant General on all matters influencing the mission readiness, professional development, force management, health, morale and welfare of the State’s enlisted Airmen and their families.

CMSgt Maxie enlisted in the Ohio Air National Guard in March 2001 into the 269th Combat Communications Squadron as a communications systems maintainer and graduated technical school training in January 2002. During this assignment, she deployed in support of Hurricane Katrina relief efforts and transitioned to the Unit Training Manager in May 2007. CMSgt Maxie transferred to the Texas Air National Guard in November 2010 as a Client Systems Craftsman. She deployed in support of Operation FREEDOM’S SENTINEL as the Air Force Central Command Engineering Installation project manager. In 2018, she worked in parallel as the 272d Senior Enlisted Leader and Project Manager responsible for long-range cyberspace planning, policy and guidance throughout the Department of Defense. CMSgt Maxie was selected to be a critical member for an inaugural talent management initiative, optimizing the talent within the Texas Air National Guard to reduce key leadership vacancies and provide real-time opportunities for Airmen.

CMSgt Maxie has a dynamic civilian professional background ranging from corporate management, education, non-profit and business consulting, serving as a mentor and advisor on professional development and training for multiple organizations. Prior to her current position, she was the Command Chief for the 147th Attack Wing, Ellington Field Joint Reserve Base, Houston, Texas
