BRIGADIER GENERAL DAWN M. FERRELL

Deputy Adjutant General for Air, Texas Military Department

Brigadier General Dawn Marie Ferrell was appointed the Deputy Adjutant General for Air for the Texas Military Department on 13 November 2015. In this position, she serves as the principle advisor to the Adjutant General of Texas for all Air National Guard issues and is responsible for assisting in the planning, direction and administration of over 3,200 Air National Guard personnel within the state of Texas.

In 1983, then Airman Basic Ferrell enlisted in the Texas Air National Guard, 181st Aerial Port Flight, 136th Airlift Wing, as an Air Cargo Specialist. General Ferrell received her commission through the Air National Guard's Academy of Military Science in 1994. She took command of the 181st Aerial Port Flight, until that unit was deactivated in 1995, at which time General Ferrell was reassigned to the 136th Aerial Port Squadron, Hensley Field, Dallas, Texas. She was selected as the Operations Officer when the unit was relocated to Naval Air Station Fort Worth Joint Reserve Base. During September and October of 2005, General Ferrell was assigned as the Deployed Aerial Port Commander for Hurricane Katrina and Hurricane Rita Relief Efforts at Naval Air Station Joint Reserve Base (Belle Chase), New Orleans, LA, and Ellington Field, Houston, TX, where her team set up a fully functioning aerial port to handle the influx of aircraft delivering troops and supplies to the hurricane-devastated areas. General Ferrell was appointed Acting Commander of the 136th Aerial Port Squadron in February 2006, and took full command in August 2006 until the squadron was deactivated in October of 2007. General Ferrell became the Vice Commander for the 136th Mission Support Group in April 2008 and the Group's Commander in November 2009. From August of 2013-April of 2014, General Ferrell deployed to ISAF HQ, Kabul, Afghanistan in a joint NATO billet as the Director of Plans and Logistics Operations, where she was responsible for strategic level oversight for logistics planning, sustainment, and redeployment of US and NATO forces for the International Security Assistance Force mission. In her most recent assignment as Commander for the 136th Mission Support Group, she provided leadership and direction to the Group resulting in mission readiness of the Civil Engineer Squadron, Security Forces Squadron, Logistics Readiness Squadron, Force Support Squadron, Communications Flight, and a Contracting element.

General Ferrell earned an M.A and a B.A from Midwestern State University in Wichita Falls, TX and a Ph.D. from the University of North Texas in Denton, TX. Prior to working full time with the Texas Air National Guard, General Ferrell was the Director of Institutional Research and Planning and the Accreditation Liaison at Vernon College in Wichita Falls, TX, where she was responsible for the college's quality, planning and assessment processes, ensuring compliance with the standards of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools, and overseeing all aspects of administrative research for the college. General Ferrell also served as an adjunct instructor for Vernon College and Wayland Baptist University, teaching political science courses.
