2. Applicability. This guidance applies to members of the Texas Military regardless of duty or employment status.

3. Purpose. The Adjutant General supports and encourages members of the Texas Military to attend the annual NGAT Conference. This memorandum provides guidance regarding duty status of personnel attending.

   a. Attendance at the NGAT Conference. Attending the NGAT conference is voluntary. Attendance in an official duty status is not authorized, unless operating under the authority of an approved DD Form 2536, Request for Armed Forces Participation in Public Events (Non-Aviation). Individuals may take ordinary or personal leave, or be on Permissive Temporary Duty (PTDY), to attend. Supervisors are responsible for ensuring attendance of employees granted PTDY. Personnel in units that are scheduled for drill during the conference must adhere to the unit commanders’ guidance regarding split training.

   b. Active Guard/Reserve (AGR), Active Duty for Operational Support (ADOS) Personnel: AGR/ADOS personnel who voluntarily register to attend may be granted PTDY to attend professional meetings IAW AR 600-8-10, paragraph 5-32e (TXARNG) and AFI 36-3003, paragraph 12.7, Table 7, Rule 22 (TXANG). PTDY is non-chargeable leave that does not incur any cost to the government.

      (1) TXARNG - Service members must enter their PTDY IAW AR 600-8-10, para.5-34, through their leave accountability system.
