APPENDIX A

RECRUITMENT INCENTIVES

1. Authorization of Recruitment Incentives. A recruitment incentive, up to 25 percent of an employee’s annual rate of pay, may be offered to an employee who is “newly appointed” (see 5 CFR 575.102) to a position that is difficult to fill in the absence of an incentive.

2. Approval Authority. The authority to approve recruitment incentives for TMD Title 5 and Title 32 employees is TAG.

3. Determination to Pay. The determination to pay a recruitment incentive must be made prior to the advertisement of the position and submitted with the Standard Form 52, Request for Personnel Action, and document that in the absence of an incentive it would be difficult to fill the position. Requests for recruitment incentives are submitted using the Recruitment Incentive Request Form (Appendix I). An employee who has not yet reported to duty must sign a Service Agreement prior to payment of a recruitment incentive.

4. Approval Authority Review. A recruitment incentive, and the amount of the incentive, must be approved and certified by the TAG prior to payment of a recruitment incentive. All TXANG approved recruitment incentives will be forwarded to ANGRC for review.

5. Service Agreement. Before a recruitment incentive is paid, the employee offered a recruitment incentive must sign a written Service Agreement to complete a specified period of fulltime employment in the position hired with the Texas Military Department. The minimum period of service required is no less than 12-months and no more than 4-years (48-months) of continued employment in the position for which a recruitment incentive was approved. The employee’s failure to complete the service period, as stipulated in the Service Agreement, will obligate the employee to a pro rata repayment of the recruitment incentive. The following outlines the service agreement requirements with the Texas Military Department:

6. Payment of a Recruitment Incentive. A recruitment incentive is calculated as a percentage (not to exceed 25 percent) of the employee’s annual rate of basic pay to include either locality pay or a special rate supplement; is not considered a part of basic pay for any purpose. Recruitment incentives will be paid in bi-weekly installments.
7. Written Notification. State HROs must notify the employee, in writing, when a Service Agreement is terminated. Written notification and acknowledgement must be executed within three business days of the decision to terminate the Service Agreement. A copy of the notification memorandum must be maintained by the state HRO for a two-year period following the termination of the Service Agreement.

8. Repayment of a Recruitment Incentive. Recruitment incentive payments, made for periods of time that are not completed in accordance with the employee’s written Service Agreement, are overpayments and are subject to the debt collection process outlined in DoD 7000.14-R. The recovery of an employee’s debt may not be waived, in whole or in part, by TAG.

9. Program Oversight and Evaluation. The Chief, National Guard Bureau is responsible for the management, oversight, evaluation, and execution of recruitment incentive program policy through the Director, Army National Guard, the Director, Air National Guard, and the Director, J1 Manpower and Personnel (NG-J1-TN). Each National Guard state, territory and the District of Columbia will furnish NG-J1-TN with a copy of their state recruitment, relocation and retention plan.

10. Documentation and Records. TAG is responsible for ensuring that the basis for a recruitment incentive is sufficiently documented. This written documentation will be maintained by the state HRO for a period of two years following the completion of the service period.

11. Reporting Requirements. The state HRO will complete an annual report, at the end of each Fiscal Year, for submission to NG-J1-TN. This report must include, at a minimum, the information detailed below. Annual reports must be received by NG-J1-TN no later than 15 October of every year.

   a. A description of how the recruitment incentive authority was used during the previous fiscal year (e.g. number of incentives offered and accepted).

   b. The individual percentage and dollar amount of recruitment incentives paid to employees during the previous fiscal year, by pay plan, series, and grade.

   c. A summary statement assessing the effectiveness recruitment incentives have on recruiting qualified employees/applicants for positions that are difficult to fill.
APPENDIX B

RELOCATION INCENTIVES

1. Authorization of Relocation Incentives. A relocation incentive, up to 25 percent of an employee’s annual rate of basic pay, may be offered to an assigned employee who must relocate, without a break in service, to accept a position that is difficult to fill in the absence of an incentive, in a different commuting area.

2. Approval Authority. The authority to approve relocation incentives for TMD Title 5 and Title 32 employees is TAG.

3. Determination to Pay. The determination to pay a relocation incentive must be made prior to advertising the position and submitted with the Standard Form 52, Request for Personnel Action, and document that in the absence of an incentive it would be difficult to fill the position. Requests for relocation incentives are submitted using Relocation Incentive Request Form (Appendix I). The employee must establish a residence in the new geographic area before the relocation incentive is paid and provide supporting documentation to the HRO.

4. Approval Authority Review. A relocation incentive, and the amount of the incentive, must be approved and certified by TAG prior to payment of a relocation incentive. All TXANG approved relocation incentives will be forwarded to ANGRC for review.

5. Service Agreement. Before a relocation incentive is paid, the employee offered a relocation incentive must sign a written Service Agreement to complete a specified period of fulltime employment in the relocated position with the Texas Military Department. The minimum period of service required is no less than 12-months and no more than 4-years (48-months) of continued employment in the position for which a relocation incentive was approved. The employee’s failure to complete the service period, as stipulated in the Service Agreement, will obligate the employee to a pro rata repayment of the relocation incentive.

6. Payment of a Relocation Incentive. A relocation incentive is calculated as a percentage (not to exceed 25 percent) of the employee’s annual rate of basic pay to include either locality pay or a special rate supplement; is not considered a part of basic pay for any purpose. Relocation incentives will be paid in bi-weekly installments with the first installment to begin after the employee has established a residence in the new location. The following outlines the service agreement requirements with the Texas Military Department:
7. Repayment of a Relocation Incentive. Relocation incentive payments, made for periods of time that are not completed in accordance with the employee's written Service Agreement, are overpayments and are subject to the debt collection process outlined in DoD 7000.14-R. The recovery of an employee's debt may not be waived, in whole or in part, by TAG.

8. Program Oversight and Evaluation. The Chief, National Guard Bureau is responsible for the management, oversight, evaluation, and execution of relocation incentive program policy through the Director, Army National Guard, the Director, Air National Guard, and the Director, J1 Manpower and Personnel (NG-J1-TN). Each National Guard state, territory and the District of Columbia will furnish NG-J1-TN with a copy of their state recruitment, relocation and retention plan.

9. Documentation and Records. TAG is responsible for ensuring that the basis for a relocation incentive is sufficiently documented. This written documentation will be maintained by the state HRO for a period of two years following the completion of the service period.

10. Reporting Requirements. The states HRO will complete an annual report, at the end of each fiscal year, for submission to NG-J1-TN. This report must include, at a minimum, the information detailed below. Annual reports must be received by NG-J1-TN no later than 15 October of every year.

   a. A description of how the relocation incentive authority was used during the previous fiscal year (e.g. number of incentives offered and accepted).

   b. The individual percentage and dollar amount of relocation incentives paid to employees, during the previous fiscal year, by pay plan, series, and grade.

   c. A summary statement assessing the effectiveness a relocation incentive has on relocating a qualified employee to a position that is difficult to fill, in a different commuting area.
APPENDIX C

RETENTION INCENTIVES

1. Authorization of Retention Incentives. An “individual” retention incentive up to 25 percent of an employee’s annual rate of basic pay may be offered to retain their services in their current position. A retention incentive, up to 10 percent of an employee’s annual rate of basic pay, may be offered to an assigned “group” of Title 5 or Title 32 employees to retain their services in their current positions. Employees eligible for a retention incentive must have unusually high or unique qualifications; or it has been determined that there is a special need for the employee’s services that makes it essential to retain them in their current position(s) and, in the absence of a retention incentive, the employee is likely to leave federal service.

2. Approval Authority – Individual/Group. The authority to approve retention incentives for TMD Title 5 and Title 32 employees is TAG. TAG is the final approval authority for all approved retention incentives. All TXANG approved retention requests, to include annual recertification of incentives beyond an initial 12-month period, will be forwarded to ANGRC for review.

3. Determination to Pay. An “individual” or “group” retention incentive may be considered for approval and payment when the recommending official (Wing Commander/Directorate) and TAG have certified, in writing, that the unusually high or unique qualifications of the employee, or a special need for the employee’s services makes it essential to retain them in their current position and, in the absence of a retention incentive, the employee is likely to leave federal service.

4. TAG Review and Certification. An “individual” or “group” retention incentive, and the percentage and amount of the incentive, must be reviewed and certified by TAG prior to payment of a retention incentive. TAG must establish the criteria for offering a retention incentive in advance and the criteria must be consistently applied to other employees in similar situations.

5. Service Agreement. Before a retention incentive is paid, the employee(s) offered a retention incentive must sign a written Service Agreement to complete a specified period of fulltime employment with the Texas Military Department. The minimum period of service required is no less than 12-months and no more than 4-years (48-months). The employee’s failure to complete the service period, as stipulated in the Service Agreement, will obligate the employee to a pro rata repayment of the retention incentive. Retention incentives will be paid in bi-weekly installments with the first installment to begin after approval of the incentive. Bi-weekly incentives paid at the full incentive amount (25% individual or 10% group) do not require a service agreement but must be reviewed on an annual basis. Annual recertification is required before payment.
of subsequent retention incentive installments. The following outlines the service agreement requirements with the Texas Military Department:

- ≤ 25% Retention Incentive: 4 year service agreement
- ≤ 20% Retention Incentive: 3 year service agreement
- ≤ 15% Retention Incentive: 2 year service agreement
- ≤ 10% Retention Incentive: 1 year service agreement

6. Payment of a Retention Incentive. A Retention incentive is calculated as a percentage (not to exceed 25% for an “individual” or 10% for a “group” incentive) of the employee’s annual rate of basic pay (to include either locality pay or a special rate supplement); is not considered a part of basic pay for any purpose. Payment of a retention incentive is subject to the aggregate limitation on pay in accordance with 5 CFR Part 530, Subpart B.

7. Annual Recertification Requirement. At least 45-days prior to the annual anniversary date of an approved retention incentive, TAG must review the incentive to determine whether the incentive is still warranted and that the conditions giving rise to the original determination(s) still exist. Annual recertification must be reviewed by TAG, using the Annual Incentive Recertification Request Form (Appendix I) and must be documented in writing. All TXANG approved 3R incentives, to include annual recertification of incentives beyond an initial 12-month period, will be forwarded to ANGRC for review. TAG is the final approval authority for all 3R requests. This documentation must be maintained by the State HRO for a period of two years following the completion of the service period.

8. Repayment of a Retention Incentive. Retention incentive payments, made for periods of time that are not completed in accordance with the employee’s written Service Agreement, are overpayments and are subject to the debt collection process outlined in DoD 7000.14-R. The recovery of an employee’s debt may not be waived, in whole or in part, by TAG.

9. Program Oversight and Evaluation. The Chief, National Guard Bureau is responsible for the management, oversight, evaluation, and execution of retention incentive program policy through the Director, Army National Guard, the Director, Air National Guard, and the Director, J1 Manpower and Personnel (NG-J1-TN). Each National Guard state, territory and the District of Columbia will furnish NG-J1-TN with a copy of their state recruitment, relocation and retention plan.

10. Documentation and Records. TAG is responsible for ensuring that the basis for a retention incentive is sufficiently documented every year. This written documentation will be maintained by the state HRO for a period of two years following the completion of the service period.
11. Reporting Requirements. The state HRO will complete an annual report, at the end of each fiscal year, for submission to NG-J1-TN. This report must include, at a minimum, the information detailed below. Annual reports must be received by NG-J1-TN no later than 15 October of every year.

   a. A description of how retention incentives were used during the previous fiscal year (e.g. number of incentives offered and approved).

   b. The individual percentage and dollar amount of retention incentives paid to employees during the previous fiscal year.

   c. A summary statement assessing the effectiveness a retention incentive has on retaining qualified employees in their current position(s).

Factors for Consideration

1. Recruitment and Relocation Incentives. The determination to pay a recruitment or relocation incentive must be documented in writing and reviewed and certified by TAG prior to paying an incentive. All TXANG approved 3R incentives, to include annual recertification of incentives beyond an initial 12-month period, will be forwarded to ANGRC for review. TAG is the final approval authority for all 3R requests. To ensure all recruitment and relocation incentives meet the criteria for payment, consideration must be given to the following factors and their applicability in each case.

   a. Availability and quality of candidates

   b. Recent efforts to recruit-to-fill. A position is designated as hard to fill if it has been announced at least 2 times and received no qualified applicants. The area of consideration must have been nationwide, advertised using current compatibility requirements and no specific military rank (i.e., E4-E6, MAJ-LTC), unless it would create grade inversion. A position may also be considered hard to fill if a referral of qualified applicants resulted in non-selection. Documentation of non-selection of each candidate must be provided to HRO.

   c. Recent employee turnover in similar positions.

   d. Salaries paid for similar positions outside the federal government.

   e. Local employment trends and labor-market factors.

   f. Special or unique competencies/certifications required for the position.

   g. Use of non-pay flexibilities (e.g. telework, alternate work schedules).

   h. Use of monetary flexibilities (e.g. cash awards, Time Off awards, Quality Step Increase).

   i. Desirability of duties/work/organizational environment of the position.

   j. Geographic location of the position.

   k. Other supporting factors.

2. Retention Incentives. The determination to pay an “individual” or “group” retention incentive must be documented in writing and reviewed and certified by TAG prior to paying an incentive. To ensure all retention incentives meet the criteria for payment, consideration must be given to the following factors and their applicability in each case.

a. Availability and quality of assigned employees who, with minimal training, could perform the duties of the position.

b. Success of recent efforts to recruit and retain Title 5 and Title 32 employees with similar competencies. A position is designated as hard to fill if it has been announced at least 2 times and received no qualified applicants. The area of consideration must have been nationwide, advertised using current compatibility requirements and no specific military rank (i.e., E4-E6, MAJ-LTC), unless it would create grade inversion. A position may also be considered hard to fill if a referral of qualified applicants resulted in non-selection. Documentation of non-selection of each candidate must be provided to HRO.

c. Salaries paid for similar positions outside the Federal government.

d. Employment trends and labor-market factors.

e. Special or unique competencies required for the position (e.g. education, license, warrant, and/or professional certification).

f. Success in using non-pay flexibilities/authorities to retain employees (e.g. telework, alternative work schedules).

g. Success in using pay flexibilities/authorities to retain employees (e.g. cash awards, Time Off awards, Quality Step Increase).

h. Desirability of duties/work/organizational environment of the position.

i. Geographic location of the position (e.g. lower grade position in a high cost area).

j. Extent to which the employee’s departure would affect the State’s ability to carry out an activity, perform a function, or complete a mission-essential project.

k. Other factors may include, but are not limited to:

(1) Pay based on a Special Rate Table.

(2) Period of time during which an employee received retention incentive payments.
APPENDIX E

Incentive payments made for periods of time that are not completed in accordance with the employee’s written Service Agreement, are overpayments and are subject to the debt collection process outlined in DoD 7000.14-R. The service agreement will be extended for the period the employee was placed in a temporary assignment (detail or temporary promotion not to exceed 120 days) and was not for cause or at their request, upon return to their permanent position.

   a. When returning to the same position for which an Incentive was previously approved; as long as a determination has been made that the incentive is still warranted and the conditions giving rise to the original determination(s) still exist; and as long as the cumulative service period and payments received do not exceed the 4-year (48-month) limit.

   b. When returning to a new position; as long as a determination has been made that a Retention Incentive is warranted; and the cumulative service period and payments received do not exceed the 4-year (48-month) limit.

   d. The reasons for determining the length of the service period.

2. Certification Requirements. Each determination to pay a recruitment, relocation, or retention incentive must be fully documented, in writing, and certified by the officials identified in sections III through VII of the applicable recruitment, relocation, or retention incentive request forms provided in Appendix I.

3. Recertification Requirements. Annual incentive recertification must be certified by the officials identified in sections III through VII of the Annual Incentive Recertification Request Form provided in Appendix I.
APPENDIX H

TIMELINES

1. Annual Recertification. TAG must review and certify each retention incentive, at least 45-days prior to the anniversary date of a previously approved incentive, to determine the following:

   a. The incentive is still warranted.

   b. The amount of payment; when the conditions that originally justified payment of a retention incentive significantly changed (e.g. increases in basic pay due to promotion, Quality Step Increase, or assignment to a different position with promotion potential).

   c. The conditions giving rise to the original determination to pay the incentive still exist.

2. Recruitment, Relocation, and Retention Incentive Payments. Approved incentive payments will begin on the first day of the next pay period following approval by the “authorized agency official”. Incentive payments will be terminated on the last day of the pay period prior to the expiration date of the Service Agreement.

3. Terminations and Disapprovals. State HROs will terminate all incentives in DCPDS on the last day of the pay period prior to the expiration date of the Service Agreement; and provide the servicing ARNG/ANG payroll office with a copy of the Notification of Personnel Action (SF 50) terminating payment of the incentive.

4. Termination Notifications. State HROs must notify the employee, in writing, when a Service Agreement is terminated. Written notification must be executed within 14 business days of when the Service Agreement is terminated, or disapproved; and maintained by the state HRO for a period of two years following the termination of the Service Agreement.

5. Debt Collection Process. Unauthorized incentive payments (e.g. unauthorized payments, disapprovals, failure to complete the terms in the Service Agreement) are overpayments and are subject to the debt collection process outlined in DoD 7000.14-R, DoDFMR, Volume 8. Upon discovery, the state HRO must notify the servicing payroll office and USPFO within 3 workdays, to begin the debt collection process. Failure to comply with this requirement places pecuniary liability for the improper disbursement of Federal funds with TAG.

6. Reporting Requirements. Annual reporting requirements, established by CNGB, include the following:
a. ARNG and ANG Directorates will provide NG-J1 with an annual report (Fiscal Year) no later than 15 October of every year. This report will include a summary of recruitment, relocation, and retention Incentive activities and expenditures, for the previous fiscal year; a description of how recruitment, relocation, and retention incentives were used, to include number of incentives requested, approved, and disapproved; and a summary statement assessing the effectiveness recruitment, relocation, and retention incentives had on recruiting and retaining qualified employees in mission essential occupations.

b. State HROs will provide NG-J1-TN with an annual report (Fiscal Year) no later than 15 October of every year. This report will include a summary of recruitment, relocation, and retention incentive activities and expenditures, for the previous fiscal year; a description of how recruitment, relocation, and retention incentives were used, to include number of incentives requested, approved, and disapproved; and a summary statement assessing the effectiveness recruitment, relocation, and retention incentives had on recruiting and retaining qualified employees in mission essential occupations.

7. State Recruitment, Relocation and Retention Plan. State HROs will provide NG-J1-TN with a copy of the current state recruitment, relocation and retention plan.

2. Payment of this Recruitment Incentive will be paid in bi-weekly installment payments. Method of payment may be modified if it exceeds the Aggregate Limitation on Pay.

3. I understand my Recruitment Incentive will be terminated if I am demoted or separated for cause (e.g. conduct, unacceptable performance, involuntarily separation, a performance rating lower than "Fully Successful"); or fail to meet any critical elements on my performance standards; or fail to fulfill the terms of the service agreement. In such cases, I may retain any Recruitment Incentive payments attributable to completed service, but must repay any portion of the incentive payment attributable to uncompleted service.

4. Position Change: The service agreement will be extended for the period the employee was placed in a temporary assignment (detail or temporary promotion not to exceed 120 days) and was not for cause or at their request, upon return to their permanent position.
